

Notice of Cancellation

Unfortunately, our June-July 2020 Summer Program has been cancelled in response to the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic.

We make this decision with great regret because we know that applicants were looking forward to studying in Japan. The reason we made this decision is simply that health authorities and governments are imposing quarantines, travel restrictions and even lock-downs that will make visiting Japan very difficult and effectively preclude in-person classes.

We hope that the pandemic will not last for very long. We plan to offer our regular program of Japanese language instruction in the Fall Semester from September 2020 and the Spring Semester from January 2021. We will also resume the CJS Summer Program in 2021. Please consider joining us for these programs.
