MEDICAL INSURANCE

Foreign students must present an international medical insurance policy, with minimum hospitalization coverage for at least $100,000 USD (unlimited coverage is recommended), legal advice (civil liability), emergency evacuation and transfer, repatriation of remains and travel expenses of a family member, coverage for COVID-19 illness and expenses of the medical consequences of the disease. Before traveling, the student is required to consult a general practitioner to get information of the vaccines required to travel to Mexico, including the vaccine to prevent the COVID-19 disease.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Accepted students must read and comply with the sanitary provisions and prevention measures in force established in Mexico and by the University of Guanajuato in:

<https://www.ugto.mx/retornogradual/>

As well, the students must observe the Protocol of Return to Mobility and International Exchange in face-to-face modality available on the following websites:

https://www3.ugto.mx/retornogradual/images/programa-integral/protocolo-de-retorno-a-movilidad-e-intercambio-internacional-en-modalidad-presencial.pdf_

<https://www3.ugto.mx/retornogradual/#listadoprotocolos>

They will also need to act in accordance with the measures established in the Protocol of Action for suspected and confirmed cases of COVID-19: https://www3.ugto.mx/retornogradual/images/programa-integral/2022/protocolo-actuacion-ante-casos-sospechosos-y-confirmados-de-covid-19-01-08-22.pdf_

The stages of receiving face-to-face academic exchange nominations and their consequent implementation are subject to change without prior notice as prevention measures due to the health contingency derived from the COVID-19 pandemic and any other international event that may present a risk to the students.
