Collaboration (outline)	Language and culture exchange between Japanese and English learners.
duration	25 minutes in Japanese and 25 minutes English two times over the quarter. One meeting with Dickinson College's first-year students and one meeting with their second-year students.
How to evaluate students' achievement	Based on assessment of students' written feedback in their reports collected after each COIL exchange.
Comment	The feedback from my students about their COIL experience was very positive. They enjoyed talking with their partners at Dickinson College and getting to know more about them while using both English and Japanese.
