交流内容	This virtual exchange provided an opportunity for participants at Nanzan University and Khon Kaen University to interact on Zoom. Participants engaged in dialogues using teacher-generated and student generated questions specific to You Tube video content linked to the topic of over-tourism. This topic is relevant to students in Japan, Thailand, and from other South-East Asian cultures (since the students in this virtual exchange included other foreign nationals). Students had a chance to reflect on their intercultural knowledge, attitudes, skills, and awareness after the discussions in order to build their intercultural competence more.
評価方法	Evaluation was based on student reflections that followed the virtual exchanges. These reflections included varying degrees of evidence showing intercultural development, which were assessed.
